

DRIPPING JEWELS

The Paisley necklace by Qayten is inspired by the droplet's repetitive design, arguably derived from Persian times. The asymmetrical fashion of the gold necklace is decorated in diamonds and warm colours such as red, pink, yellow, and orange sapphires. www.qayten.net

Sparkling Tinsels

Van Cleef & Arpels reinterprets the 1930s version of their "Paillette" motif in the Bouton d'or Collection. Similar to a sequin pattern, carnelian, pink gold and mother-of-pearl are arranged to create a contrasting image with their bold colours. Each circlet is dotted with a diamond centre for an extra glisten. www.vancleefarpels.com

ORIENTAL ROYALE

Singapore jeweller Caratell takes on an Eastern spin in this pair of chandelier earrings. These A Twist in Time earrings are inspired from traditional China palace headdresses set in gold. Mandarin garnets and pear- and round-cut diamonds adorn the pieces, totalling more than 4 carats. www.caratell.com

WREATH OF GRACE

Bulgari's signature snake motif is seen throughout the multitude of its pieces from rings to bangles. In this Serpenti High Jewellery watch, the reptile is shaped in an 18K pink gold curved bracelet coated with yellow and red lacquer. A secret quartz watch is located in the mouth, set with 82 brilliant-cut diamonds. www.bulgari.com

COUNTING BLESSINGS

Dehres pays tribute to its Oriental roots with a sapphire and diamond bracelet that opens up to reveal an abacus-inspired design. From the Spirits of Ancient China collection, the Abacus bracelet is designed with 17 pieces of royal blue sapphires in heart, cushion, oval, emerald, and pear shapes along with 493 pieces of sparkling white diamonds. www.dehres.com

Bouquet of Rings

From Fancy Pink, Yellow to Green, this cluster of white and coloured diamonds rings by Hans D. Krieger is meant to represent the colours of nature. Set in 18K white gold, the bouquet-like arrangement lends a simple elegance to the pieces. www.kriegernet.com

FLORAL COLLAR

Schreiner Fine Jewellery's bloom-inspired pieces are a parure of floral colours. Set in gold, a white diamond collar necklace is coloured with round, briolette, and fancy cut brown, yellow, pink, and white diamonds. Accompanied with a pair of matching earrings, single yellow briolette diamonds hang from the chandelier. www.schreiner-jewellery.com

Natural Blush

Yoko London embraces natural beauty in this pearl necklace with a lustrous rosy blush. Forty naturally coloured freshwater pearls drape the neckline, with an elaborate centre adorned in white diamonds set in 18K white gold. www.yokolondon.com

From Siam with Gold

Derived from the Thai and French words 'Anyamani' and 'Joallerie', Anyallerie is a fine jewellery brand based in Thailand whose pieces are inspired by the abstract forms of nature. In this statement Butterfly Lace Bangle, the 18K gold is outlined with champagne and white diamonds with subtle butterfly motifs. www.anyallerie.com

POWER WHITE

Albeit small, Chanel's J12XS series features a monochromatic palette of timepieces at 19mm. The J12XS Watch Lesage Cuff is available in white or black, with a quartz timepiece in a ceramic and 18K white gold case. The cuff is made of calfskin leather and embroidered with sequins and glass beads, with a gold buckle set with baguette diamonds. www.chanel.com

Play Power

Designed for the no-nonsense stylish woman in mind, the Executive Lady timepiece by Ulysse Nardin is an unconventional ladies model in 49 mm. Equipped with a Dual Time system, it runs on a 42-hour power reserve. A bold diamond-studded chapter ring surrounds the mother-of-pearl dial, with a big date window and small seconds counter. It comes with a leather strap available in colours of purple, mahogany, or red. www.ulyse-nardin.com

FLAMES & BLOOMS

Inspired by flowers of the Orient, The Jewel Box plays with an abstract arrangement of rubies and diamonds. These Ruby Flower Earrings are designed with an irregular central arrangement of rubies surrounded by white diamonds, set in 18K white gold. www.thejewelbox.com

BOLD IN JADE

Highlighted with eight single jade cabochons, this natural jadeite and diamond necklace by Lynne Jewellery shines in its bright vivid green elegance. Mounted on 18K white gold, each gemstone is framed in sparkling white diamonds, with over 400 pieces on the entire frame. www.lynnjewellery.com

DIAMANT TROPHY

Present at the 16th edition of the Trophée Chopard, Diane Kruger was seen sporting a pair of 18ct white gold diamond earrings from the Chopard's Red Carpet Collection, as well as an 18ct white gold L'Heure Du Diamant diamond ring. The German actress won her first Trophée Chopard back in 2003. www.chopard.com

DRAGON LADY

Among the many symbolisms it carries, the dragonfly is a representation of emotional maturity. Designed by Kahn Jewellery, this 18K white gold dragonfly brooch is effortlessly designed with white and fancy yellow diamonds. The precious stones span across its four wings and thin body, totalling 11.48 carats. www.kahn-jewellery.com

GEM CITY

London by De Beers celebrates the iconic structures of the English city reflected along the Thames River. The series, shot by Mary McCartney, features Michelle Yeoh in the inspired pieces. Named after the Elizabeth Tower, Thames Path, and other iconic features, varied diamonds illuminate the sparkling pieces that are thoughtfully designed by expert craftsmen. www.debeers.com

THE PEARL WITHIN

In their Extraordinaire collection, Milanese jeweller Antonini highlights organic shapes in their pieces. Set in white gold, this pair of dangling earrings is dotted with a multitude of diamonds and single pearl accents. www.antonini.it

A PLACE IN THE SUN

Though dainty, these sunburst earrings are a unique design from Yuli. Usually associated with amber, a pink diamond centre creates an illuminating ray-like effect with surrounding pear and round white diamonds. www.yuli.com.sg

Circuit of Stars

The House of Schoeffel pays tribute to Chinese culture with a minimalistic set of rings from their Calypso Collection. Representing the 'Three Star Gods', Fu, Lu, and Shou, each pearl stands for prosperity, status, and longevity, the qualities found in the Chinese religion. The 18K rose gold bands are also available in a diamond-studded version. www.schoeffel-pearl.com

YIN, YANG & BOLD

No stranger to innovative design in their timepieces, Richard Mille pioneers a new gold and composite material in its new women's models. The RM 07-01 has a quartz and carbon case infused with gold leaf. The tonneau-shaped case is set with a diamond dial, available in a mother-of-pearl or black onyx model. www.richardmille.com

WARMING TONES

If a colourful palette doesn't suit your jewellery taste, tone it down with a pair of Labyrinth earrings from Esvara. Faceted moonstones and diamonds hang gracefully from the piece, with unique tropical wood accents to even out the shine. www.esvaraviva.com

Greens of Fortune

The emerald gemstone has long been a symbol of hope and prosperity. Weighing 81.23cts, layered strands of oval-cut emeralds comprise the multi-shape emerald and diamond bow necklace by GRAFF. In between, brilliant-cut white diamonds create a uniform visual, with a single princess-cut emerald set on an 18K white gold bow design.

Verdant Winner

A winning piece in the IJL Editor's Choice Award 2015, this viridian necklace stuns with 509ct tourmalines. Designed by UK-based jeweller Fei Liu, 45 varying sized spherical green tourmaline beads form the statement piece, along with diamonds and garnets set in 18K white gold. The feather centrepiece is transformable and can be worn as a brooch. www.feiliu.co.uk

DIAMOND ARCADE

Parmigiani Fleurier captivates us with this full-fledged diamond dial timepiece in the Tonda 1950 Clarity. Each diamond is uniformly set to radiate a look from heart's centre, creating a dome-like appearance with a trompe l'œil effect. More than 700 white diamonds are set in the dial and bezel, along with a mother-of-pearl calfskin leather bracelet to complement the white gold version. www.parmigiani.ch

PETAL SEDUCTION

This beautiful parure from Stefan Hafner's new Epoca collection artfully presents dainty floral patterns in soft strands of diamonds. Light-blue navette-cut sapphires seduce in this ring, earrings and necklace set, with white diamonds set in white gold. www.stefanhafner.com

SINGAPORE JEWELFEST 2016

Caratell

One of Asia's prominent brands, Caratell returns with new collections of fresh and striking colours, inspired by the paintings of famous artists. One of their star pieces is the Van Gogh Iris necklace, adorned with sapphires, tsavorites, and dazzling diamonds on 18k white, yellow, and black gold. Other highlights include the Spanish Dancer ring and Tsavorite earrings — perfect for those who prefer to don glamorous, statement pieces.

Expect a highly glammed up show this year, as Asia's only curated gem and jewellery exhibition returns for its 14th instalment. Singapore Jewelfest 2016 promises to thrill and excite with interactive events, stunning jewellery showcases, and a line-up of spectacular fashion shows.

Held once again at its signature Jewel Pavilion at Ngee Ann City on Orchard Road, Singapore Jewelfest 2016 will run for 10 days from October 7th to 16th. With over 60 fine jewellers from 10 countries participating, new trends, styles, and exciting designs will be unveiled. Here's a first look at what awaits at the show.

Esvara Viva

German jeweller Esvara Viva takes inspirations from the sights and sounds of the world around us. Founded by Esther Scherer, the brand presents pieces with "their own stories to tell". In the Cupola Collection, expect to come across jewellery with hints of architectural influences, such as these colourfully stacked rings in 18K rose and white gold, each bearing 52 different gemstones among brown and white diamonds.

FOR IT'S 14TH INSTALMENT, SINGAPORE JEWELFEST 2016 PROMISES TO THRILL AND EXCITE

Hans D. Krieger

Dedicated to jewellery of only the highest quality, Hans D. Krieger specialises in classic and timeless designs. With over four generations of rich heritage and enduring craftsmanship, the brand is known for championing the use of natural coloured gemstones. At the show, keep a lookout for Hans D. Krieger's selection of rings with rare natural coloured diamonds and gemstones in 18K white gold.

Jaipore Jewels

Based in Singapore, Jaipore by Ritu Aurora produces a range of collections that caters to all occasions and needs. Versatile, the brand introduces a wide selection of traditional, contemporary, and high fashion pieces. Having recently awarded the prestigious title of Dato in Malaysia for her hard work and dedication, founder Ritu Aurora will personally present her pieces, including a stunning Fine Zambian emerald ring with inlay pink diamonds and diamonds in 18K gold, and an emerald-cut diamond cuff featuring a 16.68ct fine Zambian emerald centre stone.

SINGAPORE JEWELFEST 2016 RUNS FOR 10 DAYS FROM OCTOBER 7TH TO 16TH

Scavia

Back at JewelFest after a short hiatus, Italian jewellery brand Scavia presents some of its most precious selections. Known for personalised service, Scavia combines techniques learnt through tradition, avant-garde aesthetics, and typical Italian ancient art. The brand will be presenting the Cobra emerald ring, featuring brilliant-cut diamonds and a cushion modified brilliant-cut emerald on white gold, as well as this pair of diamond and emerald 'shoulder grazer' earrings.

The Jewel Box

Founded in Singapore in 1994, The Jewel Box produces unique, handcrafted and heirloom-quality pieces. Offering only fine bespoke jewellery, the family-owned company uses both traditional and modern techniques to create one-of-a-kind pieces. This year, The Jewel Box will be introducing its Elephant collection, of which among our favourites are the Sain bangle, featuring elephants embellished with rubies and dazzling diamonds in 18K white and yellow gold, and Elephant cufflinks with rubies and emeralds in 18K white gold.
