CHATEAU CORUNDUM

ISE Jewellery is an independent bespoke jeweller that firmly believes in beauty and perfection. One piece that proves this philosophy is the Diamond Palace pendant that is set with 3.26 carats worth of white diamonds in 18k rose and white gold. A pear-shaped white diamond is framed by other six pear-shaped diamonds. www.isejewellery.com

Opalescent Glory

One of the world's top producers of rare golden South Sea pearls, Jeweller Joaillerie showcases their speciality through their Tropics collection. The large Tropics Daisy ring is set in 18k yellow gold and features diamonds totalling 2.30 carats. Its glory is completed with one golden South Sea pearl. www.jewelmer.com

Provocative SPRING

Dilys' greets spring with a twist in their latest Anthea diamond brooch. The brooch is set in 18k white gold, encrusted with black and white diamonds. The craftsmanship proves that boundaries can always be pushed with a more intense interpretation of seasons. www.dilyscollection.com

Enigmatic Seduction

Swiss jeweller De Grisogono's fine jewellery and watches can be described as enigmatic and seductive. Allegra S07/B features a black mother-of-pearl dial with white gold dauphine hands. Its case and bezel are fully set with 309 diamonds, while a black diamond sits on its crown. The custom-fitted band is made from 10 black leather and 10 white gold chords, complete with 250 diamonds. www.degrisogono.com

COLOUR ARTISTRY

Hans D. Krieger upholds their tradition of jewellery making by exercising their forte in using natural-coloured stones. Each creation is designed to awaken one's desire to possess and wear something special. Set in 18k yellow and white gold, a pair of yellow diamonds totalling more than one carat takes the spotlight beneath a string of white diamonds. www.kriegernet.com
