Clothes make the man — the mantra behind many well-dressed individuals. Dressing well largely contributes to one's self-esteem, and 'looking sharp' is often a compliment that follows. Dressing immaculately leaves a positive and lasting impression, at the same time also contributing to associated positive traits like eloquence, tidiness and affability. Taking a more literal spin on things, pairing angular fine jewellery with a smart ensemble is the last step to a pleasant presentation. ♦

Your Ring

A ring is a very intimate piece of jewellery; some are worn every day. This means it should fit well and feel comfortable, so here are some important sizing tips.

Where Size Matters

A person's ring size may change over time owing to age, injury or weight change. A jeweller may be able to resize your ring, although this depends on its design.

Measure your finger size at the end of the day when your fingers are at their largest (like sizing shoes).

Don't measure finger sizes when your hands are cold; let them warm up to room temperature.

If your finger falls between two sizes, choose the larger size to make sure it will fit; a wider ring may require a slightly larger size, because it covers more of your finger.

Wrap a piece of string or a strip of paper around your finger. Mark the point where the two ends meet. Measure the string or paper against a ruler to get the circumference of your finger. Divide that by 3.14 to get the diameter of your finger. Look up your ring size using the table shown on the right.

Finding Your Ring Size

Place your ring on top of any one of these circles. The size of your ring is where the circle sits snugly around the inner circumference of the ring.

2 (13.2MM)	12 (16.7MM)
3 (14MM)	13 (16.9MM)
4 (14.1MM)	14 (17.3MM)
5 (14.3MM)	15 (17.7MM)
6 (14.7MM)	16 (18.1MM)
7 (14.9MM)	17 (18.5MM)
8 (15.3MM)	18 (19.0MM)
9 (15.7MM)	19 (19.4MM)
10 (16.1MM)
11 (16.5MM)

(Sizing is for China, Singapore, Taiwan, Macau and Japan; Hong Kong uses a different scale)
